RESOURCES

General Reference Section

- Canada: A People's History
  Based on the CBC television series of the same name.
- Canada E-Book
  The Canada e-Book is an online version of the Canada Year Book with texts, tables, charts and audio clips that present the country's economic and social trends. It includes information on government and economics. Although the Canada E-Book has been discontinued, the 2005 version is still available through the link provided above.
- The Canadian Encyclopaedia Online
  Features and keyword search on a variety of topics. Includes timelines and "great events" in Canada.
- Historica Minutes
  One-minute vignettes (mini-movies) depicting key events in Canadian history.
- Newfoundland and Labrador Heritage
  Information, images, and artifacts on every aspect of the history of Newfoundland and Labrador.

Images
These sites are good sources of historical photographs and other images.

- Canadian Heritage Gallery
  Primary source images from all eras of Canadian history categorized by topics.
- Library and Archives of Canada
  A collection of books, historical documents, government records, photos, films, maps, music...and more.
- Images Canada
  A database of historical images that can be searched by keyword. Please note: many of these images have copyright restrictions. Make sure you read the copyright information for each image before using it.
- ImagesProject
  This is a searchable database of images, many from the NS Museum collection, and others provided through donations. They are copyright-cleared for use by teachers and students in NS schools.
- The Labrador Institute Photo Gallery
  Historical photographs of Labrador.
- Mi'kmaq Portraits Collection
  Portraits and illustrations from the Maritimes, 1500 to present.
- Mi'kmaq Holdings Resource Guide
  Historical photographs and documents of artifacts showing Mi'kmaw culture, daily life, and work.
- Wolastoqiyik Maliseet - Portrait of a People
  Historical photographs of New Brunswick Wolastoqiyik (Maliseet) groups.
Online News Sources

These news sites can help you keep up with what's going on in the world around you. They are also good sources of examples of how people in power use their authority.

- EBSCO Periodical database
  Provided for teachers and students in NS public schools. Newspapers, magazines and journals are included, many with full text.
- BBC Newsround
  Student-friendly national and global news reports from a British perspective.
- Canadian Press Online
  National and global news reports from a Canadian perspective. Click on these three menu bar choices in this order: Web Content, CP Online, Content Categories.
- CBC News
  Current news, background information on current issues
- CBC Digital Archive includes archives back to 1930 and has a section with information and activities for teachers and students (http://archives.cbc.ca/for_teachers/).